

3101PCE

101 Day RM

3101PCE Has excellent emergence & early plant vigor and an extremely strong stalk and root package. It's a tall plant with a superior agronomic package, showy fall appearance and great plant integrity. A very high yielding semi flex hybrid that responds to higher plant populations and highly productive soils.

Management Guidelines

-  Positioned on average to better acres
-  Good choice for all tillage types
-  Plant medium-high populations
-  Harvest timing– Normal to med late
